the cracker barrel

© One of the region's best-loved publications has returned, now being produced by The Deerfield Valley News for the Chimney Hill Owners Association.

All of the things readers have come to love about the Cracker Barrel are still there: locally written stories about the area and the people who live, work and play here; a peek into the history of the region; and interesting photography. It's the same quality product readers and advertisers have come to expect over the years.

Don't miss out on this proven publication. Reserve your advertising space today! The summer/fall edition is scheduled to be distributed mid-summer.
