Colman Pearce slated headlines fund-raiser for MSO on March 2

JACKSON'S FAVORITE Irish pianist, conductor and composer, Dr. Colman Pearce, will work his musical magic as only the Irish can on March 2, at 7 p.m., at the Ford Academic Complex Recital Hall at Millsaps College. The fund-raiser for the Mississippi Symphony Orchestra will showcase the music of Dublin-born Pearce, who is gifting his talent to the MSO.

Colman Pearce

The dazzling Irish program will consist of Dr. Pearce's own compositions and arrangements with the help of friends from Ireland and Jackson. Irish folk-songs, arranged by Dr. Pearce, will be performed by Dr. Tim Coker and his Millsaps Chamber Singers. Lester Senter Wilson, Cheryl Coker, Lyn Raley, and John Walsh, trumpeter, Colman's friend from Ireland, will perform solo compositions accompanied by Pearce.

The selections will include an Irish Wedding Blessing, piano and trumpet solos and song cycles with poetry of Yeats, Irishman Michael O'Siadhail and Eudora Welty. A small ensemble of MSO players, Marta Szlubowska, Alejandro Encinas, Austra Jasineviciute, Taylis Fernandez and Cybil Cheeseman will add their bonny talents to the Irish program.

THE IRISH EVENING is being produced by the team of Wilson and Coker and will be followed by a Jazz Shamrock Reception chaired by Sylvia Carraway and Regina Boyles at the Millsaps Art Gallery. "Wearin' of the green" is optional.

Tickets for the concert are $20; tickets for the reception are $15. Both are donations to the Mississippi Symphony Orchestra. For more information, call the MSO office at 601-960-1565.
